

Sustainable Innovation 2010
Creating Breakthroughs: Green Growth, Eco-Innovation,
Entrepreneurship and Jobs
8th – 9th November 2010
RDM Campus
Rotterdam, The Netherlands
www.cfsd.org.uk/events/tspd15

Dr Luca Berchicci, Assistant Professor, Centre for Entrepreneurship, Rotterdam School of Management (Erasmus University), The Netherlands

Luca Berchicci is an assistant professor at Centre for Entrepreneurship, at the Rotterdam School of Management (Erasmus University). He received his Ph.D. in Innovation Management at the Faculty of Industrial Design Engineering of Delft University of Technology.

Luca's primary interests focus on innovation management, entrepreneurship and the organization & the natural environment. His teaching focuses on venture creation and growth with a strong interest on sustainable entrepreneurship. His current research focuses on the effect of knowledge transfer on firm performance. He has published articles in Journal Product innovation Management, Technology Analysis & Strategic Management, Business Strategy and the Environment, and Academy of Management Annals.

He acts also as business advisor to new ventures to help them start and grow.