

Sustainable Innovation 2014
Cities & Regions as Catalysts for Smart & Sustainable Innovation
19th International Conference
November 2013
Denmark
www.cfsd.org.uk

Professor Frederick Charles Dubee, Member, BGI Advisory Board, Finland

Born in Canada, Professor Frederick Dubee was educated in Canada, Switzerland, Ireland, the United Kingdom and Austria; he joined the automotive industry in 1968 where he spent three decades focused on education, marketing, strategy and international bridge building in North and South America, Europe and Asia. Since 2000, Fred Dubee has served the United Nations Global Compact initially as Senior Officer, Executive Office of the Secretary-General and then as Senior Advisor: United Nations Global Compact. Fred Dubee teaches at the post-graduate level at the University of Basel - WPA, the University of Sydney, in China at the Anhui Sanliang University and at Shanghai University where he was also appointed Executive Director (International) of the MBA Centre and Global Management Education Institute. He is a professor (hc) at BGI where he is a member of the Advisory Board. Fred is also the Chairman of Cosmos International, Vice-Chair International Green Economy Association (IGEA) and Chairman of the Annual World Congress of Biodiversity (BioD-2013). Fred lectures internationally at academic and research institutions, he is a frequent contributor at high level national and international events and acts as an advisor to high level institutions and leaders of government and industry around the world. Fred is a Fellow of the World Academy of Arts and Science, a Member of the Club of Rome, JCI Ambassador and a Research Fellow: Deusto Global Centre for Sustainable Business. He has authored numerous academic papers and presentations, co-authored the book "Peace Business" published in 2009 and co-edited "China the Way Forward", published in 2010.