

Gary P. Waterworth Owen, CEO, ResponseAbility Alliance, UK

Gary is an artist, entrepreneur and adventurer. Inspired in 1992 while conducting Industry and the Environment workshops at the Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, he founded the ResponseAbility Alliance. Since then his life has been devoted to Culture Conscious Conservation®, corporate social responsibility and helping individuals and companies develop and enhance their abilities to respond to the challenges of thriving and not just surviving in the 21st Century. In 2006 he launched-Lengthen Your Stride® expeditions-unique personal and corporate transformation programmes conducted in Egypt's Sinai desert. For the foreseeable future he will be dedicated to this initiative addressing the climate change, sustainability and water and food crisis through incorporated THIRST Things First® and Roots and Fruits® programmes.
