

Dae Young Park, Secretary General,
Korea Environmental Council in Europe, Belgium

DaeYoung PARK is Secretary General of Korea Environmental Council in Europe where he advise European environmental policies and regulations for Korean companies and advocate interests of Korea companies in the course of European policy- and law-making process. Also with knowledge of international, Chinese, Japanese, Korean and Taiwanese environmental and health and safety laws, DaeYoung PARK has extensive experience in analysing and advising environmental, health and safety legislation, and the regulatory aspects of environmental management systems in China, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, and Taiwan.

Mr. Park studied law at Korea Maritime University, international trade at Kyunghee University, international environmental policy at Roskilde University and international environmental law at Ghent University, and has published extensively on sustainable consumption and production and climate change involving Europe and Asia.