Lars Holte Nielsen, Member, Management Board, ERRIN, Denmark

I am a Danish national with extensive management and international experience. My professional experience includes the Danish Ministry of Business and Industry; the European-Commission, DG Competition with responsibility for state aid in industrial sectors in Central and Eastern Europe during EU-accession; and Danish regional offices with a focus on EU-funding and partnerships. In my current job – director of Central Denmark EU Office in Brussels – I have developed the organisation from 4 to 9 employees and proved strong tangible results. In terms of education I am a Master of Political Science from University of Copenhagen supplemented with a management education. I speak Danish, English, German, French and understand Norwegian.
