Malcolm Brodie, Chair - National Waste Council, Chair – Metro Vancouver Zero Waste Committee and Mayor – City of Richmond, Canada

Malcolm Brodie has been a City Council member of the City of Richmond, British Columbia, Canada since 1996. Following a by-election, he was sworn in as Mayor on October 29, 2001 and was re-elected in 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011 and 2014.

He has been a member of Metro Vancouver Board of Directors since 2001. He is currently the Chair of Metro Vancouver's Zero Waste Committee and also serves on the Intergovernmental & Finance Committee, the Mayors' Committee, the Performance & Procurement Committee, and the Federal Gas Tax Task Force. He has represented Metro Vancouver on the Municipal Finance Authority as a Trustee since 2006, Vice Chair from 2009-2015, and Chair since March 2015. Mayor Brodie was appointed by UBCM in 2013 to represent local government on the Local Government RCMP Contract Management Committee. He was also UBCM's appointee to the PRIMECorp Board of Directors from 2013-2014. The Mayor was a Director on the Board of the Greater Vancouver Transportation Authority (TransLink) from 2002-2007 and served as Chair in 2006-2007. Since then, he has been a member of the TransLink Council of Mayors.

Mayor Brodie is also the Chair of the National Zero Waste Committee, a cross-sector leadership initiative bringing together governments, businesses, and non-government organizations to advance a national waste prevention and reduction agenda in Canada. The National Zero Waste Council was founded by Metro Vancouver in collaboration with the Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM).

Before his election to Richmond Council, Mayor Brodie was a practicing lawyer and had a long record of service to Richmond in the volunteer community. In honour of his contributions and achievements in the community, Mayor Brodie was a recipient of the Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada (1992), the Queen Elizabeth II Golden Jubilee Medal (2002), and the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal (2012).
